Laurels and Honors!

Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) listed Keshava Kripa Samvardhana Samiti in JICA India NGO under the areas of Education, Livelihood, Rural Development and Women

We have taken the pledge by Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) for upholding highest standards of ethical conduct and honesty.

Abhyudaya goes online!

To ensure social distancing and safety of our volunteers, Abhyudaya enabled virtual volunteering which has helped to transcend logistical and temporal constraints. Over 150+ employees of Intel Technology India Private Limited, Bangalore has helped us in shouldering this herculean task. They have also prepared MP3 podcasts about Padma Awardees, 2020 based on extensive coursework and also appreciable by kids. Our partnership with Intel is in alignment with United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGS) on Quality Education and Partnership for the goals.

A Push- Up a day, keeps the Societal Problems away!

#DaanUtsav

Daan Utsav, the festival of giving, was observed this year between 2nd and 8th of October. This was an opportunity for people to get fit, have fun and to bring about a positive change in the society. Volunteers planned an array of activities for the entire week including Push-ups for Society and Surya Namaskars for Society, driving a donation of Rs.10 for each push-up and Suryanamaskar respectively. As a part of the initiative, a 'Wish Tree' was introduced, wherein donors can choose the items to be given to students among Facemask, Chess set, School Kit, and General Knowledge Book. Volunteers and fitness enthusiasts from all walks of life participated, making it truly a 'Joy of giving week'.

Material Matters!

50+ virtual volunteers from umpteen States, Companies and Countries prepared 94 different materials on various subjects including English, science, biology, and engaging puzzles and quizzes for the benefit of Abhyudaya Kalika Kendra children. These materials are the culmination of the work done by the volunteers for over 150 days.

Rebecca Thomas prepared a material on the 'whats', 'whys' and 'hows' of Probability as well as a quiz to test the learned knowledge of the Kalika Kendra Children.

Exercise

A coin is tossed once. Find the probability of:

1. Getting a tail

Solution:

Total number of outcomes= 2 (head, tail)

Number of favorable outcomes= 1

$P(\text{Getting a tail}) = \frac{1}{2}$

2. Not getting a tail

Solution:

(This is same as getting a head)

Number of favorable outcomes= 1

$P(\text{Not getting a tail}) = \frac{1}{2}$

Donning the Duty Coat!

As a part of the Corona Relief initiative, the following activities were taken up:

- Shri Lakshmi Narayana, Chief Functionary of Abhyudaya, distributed herbal drink to Bidadi Police Station.

Aiding Virtual Learning

Shift to virtual medium of learning has brought to the fore infrastructural disparities rampant in our society. To alleviate this chasm the following activities were assumed.

Greeshma, a student of 10th Standard, has been handed over a tab to enable her to attend online classes.

Chandrasekhar, a MBA student, wishes to take on societal inequalities existing in our society. He was given a laptop. We thank the donor Sandeep for his support and Smt. Dipika Bajpai and India Care for their support in connecting the donor.

A Never Setting Sun - Vidyanidhi Programme

Education is the coveted aspect of every individual's life and rightly so. To ease the burden of school fees from the shoulders of parents, troubled by Covid uncertainties, Vidyanidhi was awarded to meritorious students from underserved sections of the society. As a part of the process, research and thorough background verification was conducted by the volunteers to identify the deserving beneficiaries.

Shri Manjunath Babu, ACP Kumaraswamy police station and Shri Sundar Raj Gupta ret'd KAS presided over the programme. Below are the ambitious plans of a few of the recipients.

In the period September –October 2020, Vidyanidhi has been awarded to 80 students studying courses ranging Primary School to Degree and other professional courses. (31 Boys and 49 Girls)

Keeping up with the NEP, 2020!

Echoing the sentiments of the PM and his call for interplay of technology and education as a part of National Education Policy, 2020 a new computer lab was inaugurated at Abhyudaya. This would facilitate exposure of students to various computer languages and thereby support their social mobility through better livelihood.

A feather (or 10k more) in the Cap!

Abhyudaya, which was started as a drop in the ocean has reached over 10,000 followers on Facebook.

Contributions over Cakes and Candles!

Manoj Ganghar, Mohan K Pattabhiraman and Keshava Prakash decided to ring in their birthdays with Abhyudaya, by vowing to raise funds to support the education of the under-served. We wish them prosperity and success in all their future endeavours.

Maths and Fun!(Yes, You read that right)

Vedic Maths sessions were conducted between September 14th and 17th (PU students) and October 19th and 27th (7th Standard students). These were the 4th and 5th batches conducted and the number of participants were 45 in total. The sessions were moderated online and virtual mode did not dampen the spirits of our champs. The students who attended the sessions were also awarded certificates.

Sangeet Sahal, an ode to the Nightingales!

To foster creativity and promulgate Indian arts, Sangeet Sahal, a kalakar group was conceptualised. Volunteers attend practice sessions on Classical Music, Instruments and Dance, depending on their areas of interest, every Friday and work on honing their skills. The current enrolment in the group is close to 50.

IAS Study Circles

To encourage students aspiring to take up UPSC and other civil service examinations, Study Circles were conceived. These study groups have been active and provide a platform for peer discussions and doubt solving.

Sky's the Limit!

Bhuvanashree, a student of Abhyudaya was given free enrolment at Deeksha, Kengeri campus. Having completed SSLC from a Govt School, she was honoured by Education Minister Shri Suresh Kumar Ji. Being from an economically disadvantaged background, she defied the odds and was the highest scorer at GHS Byataranapura.

A Head to fall, to lose them all!

Dasara was celebrated keep in mind the Covid -19 guidelines. Ayudha Puja was observed at Jnanagiri with pompous as well as caution. Abhyudaya students celebrated Dasara against the backdrop of Swatch Bharat Scheme in a unique way.
